SKIRMISHER

A. Gilbert

Dear Al,
I hope you haven't taken everything I've said seriously.
Most of it has been just in fun. I think that you will do swell + go far if you will get a little more serious + put a little ^{money} effort into it. Joe one of the Sweetest greets I know,

Your Brother,
Dick

To the Future

Another class of fine young men is looking beyond the limits of this Academy to the challenge of the future. To this group, the Class of 1952, go the sincere best wishes from every member of the MPMA faculty, for complete success in every undertaking. May each member of the class strive to make himself, his family, his community, his state and nation, just a little better with each succeeding day. May he be true to friends, industrious in every enterprise, positive in the exercise of his responsibilities. May he never lose sight of the real beauties in this troubled world, the rewards of patience and understanding, the basic values of devotion to high purpose. And may he always be mindful of the necessity for quiet meditation in the presence of God. All these things are available to him, if he chooses to reach for them.

THE SENIOR CLASS

The end of the trail wends its way into sight, and dreams of diplomas become realities for the Senior Class. The daily class schedule of MPMA will be but a routine of the past. No more will the seniors hear the calls of classmates echoing in the halls, and the classrooms will become but memories.

The four years completed at MPMA will undoubtedly never be exceeded in happiness during the future years of their lives. We feel confident that no matter how long the distance lying between the seniors and their old friends at MPMA, there will always be a yearning for the day when these same classmates will meet again to talk over old times.

The Skirmisher staff salutes the Senior Class for providing the leadership and spark in making the past year a successful one, and setting an example to be followed by the underclassmen. Individually, and as a group, they made their mark in the academic, military, athletic, and social activities at the academy.

Lt. Colonel Cyril Brdecka served as the Battalion Commander. He was also the winner of the coveted Chicago Tribune medal for military achievement.

Frank Burd captained the varsity football team manned with seven seniors on the starting eleven. Cy Brdecka captained and was the leading scorer on the varsity basketball team. Harry Stutts captained the wrestling team and won the sectional wrestling title at 133 pounds. Frank Casey captained the baseball team. Paul Berezny and Harry Stutts captained the track team.

Academic honors were captured by Ken Zubrick, Robert Hatch, John Tipton, Robert Schramm, and Donald Grice.

The following served as officers of the Senior Class: Cy Brdecka, President; Harry Stutts, Vice-President; John Tipton, Secretary; Dennis Cresap, Treasurer; and Dick Bort, Sergeant-at-Arms. Major Gumbrell served as faculty advisor.

THE JUNIOR CLASS

The Class of '53 in its Junior year deserves unbounded plaudits for its splendid efforts. Earnestly they worked and played, developing into a group so energetic and progressive that its successors will have high standards to follow in duplicating its accomplishments.

The academic leaders of the class were Peter Rosi, William Sadd, Thomas Boyd, William Nuenke, Herb Tucker, Edward Gardas and Robert Mazik.

William Nuenke and John Gislason won top honors in the Military, by being appointed Second Lieutenants.

The Junior Class was well represented in all sports. Bill Westenberger, John Gislason, Bob Larsen, Malcolm Duffek, Pat Lonergan, and Marlin Leimnetzer saw much action on the gridiron. Tom Keating, Charles Leonard, Herb Tucker and Bob Larsen starred on the basketball court. Paul Keane, Malcolm Duffek, Larry Poullman, and Bob and Bill Sineni were Junior Class representatives on the wrestling team.

Social activities of the Junior Class included "An Evening of Theatre", three one-act plays presented in the Blake Theatre, and the Junior-Senior Prom presented in May.

The officers of the Junior Class were: William Nuenke, President; Art Voornas, Vice-President; Larry Poullman, Treasurer; Paul Keane, Secretary; Mario Simi, Sergeant-at-Arms. Lt. Gerald Hasbargen served as the class advisor.

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

The Sophomore Class concluded a most successful school year with a full participation in academy life.

The scholastic leaders of the class were James Goss, John Larson, John Fitzgerald, Ed Walline, George Mahon, and Matthew Bertash. Military honors were captured by Dave Cochrane and George Mahon, who received sergeant stripes. Corporal stripes were won by Jim Goss, John Fitzgerald, Ed Walline, and Jack Larson. Ed Walline was the winner of the coveted Chicago Tribune military medal. Pete Voss was the only sophomore to start for the varsity football team. The Frosh-Soph football team was chiefly composed of sophomores. Jim Smart earned a starting berth on the varsity basketball team. The Varsity wrestling team included sophomores Pete Voss, Tony Kocalis, and Richard Dina. The class was equally well represented on the track and baseball teams.

The Sophomore Class highlighted their social functions with the "Bunny Hop", presented in Upper Alumni Hall on the fifth of April.

The offices of the Sophomore Class were filled by Pete Voss, President; George Mahon, Vice-President; Jim Smart, Treasurer; Joan Bacino, Secretary; and Jim Stokes, Sergeant-at-Arms.

MPMA's crack drill team, the Grenadiers, received numerous invitations to perform before various organizations throughout the school year. Their first performance was witnessed by approximately two thousand people at the Marine Day celebration held at the Masonic Temple. Late in December, the Grenadiers gave an exhibition at the Army-Navy Ball held at the Conrad Hilton Hotel. Exhibitions were also given before members of the Rosemoor Community Center, the Fathers' Club, and the Mothers' Club. The final drill performance of the year was witnessed by the government inspectors.

Membership in the Grenadier organization is based on a cadet's ability to drill with a rifle. Major Kettelhut and Sergeant Tong, coaches of the Grenadiers, did an excellent job in selecting the final forty cadets from a long list of hopefuls.

ATHLETICS

The 1951 Warriors, captained by Frank Burd, and coached by Captains Ziemba and Rodie, had a disastrous season in compiling only one win against eight losses. The season was particularly heart-breaking in that the worst defeat was only a three touchdown margin suffered at the hands of Culver. The Warriors dropped four contests by the margin of a touchdown or less.

The backfield unit for 1951 consisted of Frank Casey and John Gislason at quarterback, Frank Burd and Harry Stutts at the halfback posts, and Bill Krizenecky and Dennis Cresap in the fullback slot.

Frank Burd was the leading ground gainer for the Warriors. Captain Burd received Honorable Mention on the All-Chicago Area Team and the All-State Team.

The Maroon and White cagers of 1951-52 compiled a season record of six wins and eleven losses but played a far better brand of ball than the record would indicate. The Rodiemen experienced the same heartbreaks as did the football team, in dropping five encounters by a margin of four points or less. The cagers dropped their first seven games and came back strong to win four in a row. They concluded the season with two wins in the remaining five games.

The Warriors played one of their finest games in the State Regional Tournament at LaGrange. Facing Riverside-Brookfield, an overwhelming favorite, the Warriors lost in the closing minutes of the game.

Captain Cy Brdecka led the scoring with 262 points, an average of 16 points per game. Brdecka and Voigt were most accurate from the free throw line, with 63 and 61 per cent averages respectively. The Warriors amassed 859 points to their opponents 894.

Now in its sixth year as a campus organization, the National Honor Society continues to have an exclusive membership. The number of members in the organization is small because of the strict regulations governing admittance.

To gain membership in the society, cadets must have a thirteen point average, render thirty-six hours of service to the school, and hold some responsible position to show leadership and outstanding ability.

The members did an outstanding job in tutoring those cadets who were having particular scholastic problems. Information regarding college entrance requirements was gathered by the society for the Senior Class. The club also rendered service to the school in helping with many clerical tasks.

The Guardians, elected representatives of the Cadet Corps, did an excellent job in handling their responsibilities throughout the school year. Their accomplishments included the revising of the Plebe Rules, the holding of a Plebe Court, the presentation of several assemblies at which sportsmanship at athletic events was emphasized, and cheating in examinations was discouraged. The Guardians also made a number of recommendations for the improvement of facilities to the Administration.

The Guardians also sponsored several activities in the lighter vein. These included the "Hobo Hop", the only dance given during the year in which the cadets are allowed to wear civilian garb. The "Pow-Wow" was sponsored jointly by the Guardians and the Emblem Club.

In addition to the above mentioned officers, first semester Guardians included: Frank Casey, Bob Hatch, Ron Jerit, Harry Stutts, and John Tipton from the Senior Class. Junior Guardians were Tom Boyd, William Nuenke, William Sadd and Paul Keane. Sophomores included John Fitzgerald, George Mahon, and James Stokes.

Second semester Guardians representing the Seniors were: Richard Bort, Harry Stutts, John Tipton, Ken Zubrick, and Walter Schramm. The Junior Class were led by Tom Boyd, William Nuenke, William Sadd, and Paul Keane. The Sophomore Class elected George Mahon, Peter Voss, and John Bacino. The Freshmen were represented by Larry Seres.

ACADEMY NEWS

Interesting information and enjoyable reading about campus happenings was presented to the Cadet Corps by the Academy News, the school newspaper which appeared bi-monthly.

The hard working staff that made the little journal a success this year included the following: members of the editorial board — Bill Sadd, Bob Hatch, Peter Rosi, and Jim Goss. Photographs were handled by Atlee Hart and Jack Geiseman. Sports were ably covered by Phil Zaferopulos. The comic strip "Pipsqueak" drawn by Jim Goss continued to be a favorite of the cadets. Reporters John Gislason, Peter Stogis, John Fitzgerald, Matthew Bertash, Buck Buchanan, George Skontos, and Jim Rabishaw supplied the many news articles. The Academy News staff received valuable guidance and assistance from their advisors, Capt. John Blacharski and Lt. Leland Dickinson.

The Academy News is a member of the Illinois High School Press Association, the Quill and Scroll, and the National Scholastic Press Association.

SKIRMISHER

Editor-in-Chief	Buck Buchanan
Associate Editor	Robert Hatch
Sports Editors	Phil Zaferopulos, Tom Keating
Business Manager	Ronald Francis
Faculty Advisor	Capt. Joseph Ziemba

The staff of your yearbook is very proud to present the 1952 Skirmisher. Many man hours of work have gone into the production of the yearbook, and the staff hopes that it lives up to the high standards set by its predecessors. Your Skirmisher is a living record of your school, your friendships, and your activities. It is the hope of the staff that it will bring back many happy memories in the years to come when you thumb through the pages.

The Editor wishes to express his gratitude to the small but hard working staff who helped to compile the annual. Atlee Hart, Jack Geiseman, Ron Kammerer and Louis Strapp furnished the many candid shots featured in the yearbook.

The size and quality of the Skirmisher is determined by the amount of revenue raised through advertising. Ronald Francis, business manager, was ably assisted by Don Sweeney, Robert Rolfe, Tom Keating, Don Dybalski, and Jim Rabishaw in breaking all previous records for revenues raised through advertising. Their efforts are mainly responsible for a full page, full color picture printed for the first time in any Skirmisher.

The Emblem Club of 1951-52 maintained its reputation as being one of the foremost organizations on the campus. Membership in the club is based on the ability of a cadet to win a varsity letter in one of the major sports and completing fifteen hours of service for the academy.

In addition to presenting a number of house parties, the Emblem Club traditionally sponsors the first formal of the school year in December honoring the Football Team. The Emblem Club concluded its social activities with a banquet for its members in June.

The Emblem Club's source of revenue has been the refreshment stand at the football and basketball games. The organization purchased a "hot dog" steam stand to provide a greater variety of goods for those in attendance at the athletic contests.

The Frosh-Soph Club ended a successful year with its largest membership since the formation of the club by Capt. Gene Marshall in 1945.

The club was responsible for the publishing of programs for the many home athletic contests. The Frosh-Soph Dance was the main social function sponsored by the organization. Activities for the year were climaxed with a banquet sponsored jointly with the Emblem Club.

Membership in the club is obtained by winning a letter in any Frosh-Soph sport and by contributing ten hours of service to the school. Meetings were held weekly every Tuesday night.

The Cavalry unit of the academy met three times a week at the Woodland Valley Stables. Lt. James Whaley, instructor for the past several years, entered the armed forces, and he was capably substituted for by Mr. Stanley Luke.

The riders were divided into a beginners group and an advanced group. The former were instructed in the fundamentals of horsemanship, while the latter group engaged in jumping, riding bareback, and playing polo.

One horse show was held during the school year. Fred Baerenz won top honors at this event.

These efficient purveyors of food were greatly appreciated by the hungry corps for their magnanimous efforts in securing that extra dessert, that second chicken leg, or that extra butter. The waiters were capably directed by Headwaiters Harry "Pierre" Stutts and William "Jacques" Krizenecky.

Al,

Is a good guy who was good to know in the past year. Hope to see you next year and have the same amount of fun. Good luck in the future

Frank

Dear Al,

I hope you come back next and make our wonderful basketball team complete. If you don't I know you will do good at what ever school you attend. I have had a lot of fun in basketball this year with you + I hope we'll play together next year. Good luck Al.

Basketball Pal,

Bud.
Draco

Will work with you to a good team with a lot of fun to have

good time with you next year.

Dear Al

I don't know how to express myself at a time like this so I won't write a lot of bull. Sincerely I hope you succeed in the future. When you return next year work a little harder in everything and help the
"Fis" to keep going strong.

Your Pal

Fern Boyd

Al
I hope to see you at school and at school of future
I hope you will work hard and help the "Fis"
to keep going strong.
I hope you will work hard and help the "Fis"
to keep going strong.

Al,
I don't really know how to say what I want to, but I'll try this way — you've been one of my best buddies, and I've had more fun with you than anyone I can think of. Because of you I want to come back here again.
Norm (Garboon) Ragnum
